SB Contemporary Arts Forum: A Valentine's Benefit Auction and Party

NEW YORK CITY'S GREY AREA POP-UP SHOP will bring Santa Barbara Contemporary Art Forum's annual Valentine's benefit into a new realm.

"We're turning it up a notch," says Karla Blancas, Curatorial and Development Associate. "We're really excited to bring the Grey Area Pop-up Shop to Santa Barbara as it offers affordable gifts for loved ones by high-end artists and designers."

On Saturday, February 11th head downtown for CAF's late-night benefit extravaganza from 8pm to 11pm to find a highly curated selection of artist-designed objects that can't be found anywhere else in town. Inspired by the romance and sophistication of the holiday, this fundraiser for the arts offers an extraordinary collection of fine wine and luxury lifestyle auction lots.

All proceeds from the Valentine's Benefit Auction and Party benefit CAF's exhibitions and programs, which are brought to the public free of charge. At the party, you can indulge your vices with sweets guaranteed to tantalize, sensational cocktails, art direction by Kat Trajano, and loving grooves by Playback's DJ Tucker Bodine.

Exclusively for men with discerning tastes, CAF's Valentine's Benefit Auction & Party will offer a Gentlemen's Lounge, featuring whisky pours by local artist and spirits connoisseur

Macduff Everton, beer from The Brewhouse, and auction lots of specialty Santa Ynez and Napa Valley wines, sailing trips, hand-crafted leather goods, and local club memberships.

Valentine's Benefit

Auction & Party attendees, who purchase a Santa Barbara Million Dollar Home Raffle ticket while at the Valentine's event, will be entered into an exclusive instant win raffle for a beach cruiser artfully painted by local artist Vanae Rivera.

Featured in W Magazine, Refinery 29, the New York Times, and at the Bass Museum during Art Basel Miami Beach, Grey Area's Pop-up Shop offers fashionable, high-end items by artists and designers such as Will Cotton, Piero Golia, Barbara Kruger, Yoshitomo Nara, Ed Ruscha, Julian Schnabel, and Rob Wynne.

Event Co-Chairs:

Jacquelyn Klein-Brown, Eileen Rasmussen, and Nancy Wall. Honorary Committee: Elisabeth Fowler, Lila Francese, Mike Healy, Cyndee Howard, Barry and Jill Kitnick, John Kochis, Stevie Mason, Bibi Moezzi, Shamim M. Momin, Marc and Laurie Recordon, Michael Trambert, and Geof and Laura Wyatt.

VIP Tickets are $125 per person (pre-sale) or $135 per person at door. VIP includes open-bar privileges and an exclusive champagne preview at 7:30pm. General Admission is $75 per person (pre-sale) or $85 per person at door. General Admission includes auctions, sweets and savories, wine and cocktails, and live DJ. To purchase tickets call 966-5373 or visit sbcaf.org.

Atkinson Galllery: Persistence

THE ATKINSON GALLERY OPENED ITS 2012 SEASON with an art exhibit focused on abstract art in Santa Barbara. Persistence features paintings and sculpture by ten artists including: Philip Argent; Jerrold Burchman; Jane Callister; Dan Connally; Julia Ford; Rollin Fortier; Mary Heebner; Hugh Margerum; Harry Reese; and Joan Tanner. The exhibit will be on view through February 26th. Dr. Joy Kunz, SBCC art department, will speak on abstraction on Wednesday, February 8th, at 4:30pm in the Art Department, room H111.

The artists in the exhibition are a mix of native Californians and transplants from across the US, England, and the Isle of Man. Each has spent considerable time in their practice, some for several decades, often in the face of less than desirable public support.
